

GOLDEN TRIANGLE WITH RANTHBORE NATIONAL PARK

From USD 399 Per Person

This Trip will give you the chance to see at least Half of Incredible India. Bring together history, culture & nature visiting New Delhi, Agra, Ranthbore National Park & Jaipur.

Highlights:

New Delhi, Agra, Ranthambore Tiger Park, Jaipur

The ethereal monument of Taj Mahal – the epitome of love, was built by Emperor Shah Jahan in the memory of his beloved wife Mumtaz, which reflects the experience of the greatest love story ever told. The cities of Agra (including the Taj Mahal), Jaipur and Delhi, together, form the “Golden Triangle”. Under this package, we also cover sightseeing tours of Agra Fort, Sikandara & Fatehpur Sikri. The city of Agra, situated on the banks of River Yamuna, is best remembered for the Shimmering White Jewel - The Taj Mahal.

Jaipur After Delhi and Agra, we take our tourists to the joyous destination of Jaipur, which is the the final stop of the golden triangle tour. Jaipur consists of the best of forts and palaces, thereby, making the visit the most royal one. The pink city is definitely symbolic of the hospitality that once reigned in the Rajput culture. A heart-warming welcome by garlanding the tourists in a traditional manner by the caparisoned elephants is bound to enthrall one and all.

Ranthambore National Park is in Sawai Madhopur District of Rajasthan state. Located at the junction of the Aravalli and Vindhya hill range, this is one of the finest places to view animals, especially as they are used to being stared at here. The park covers an area of Approximately 400 sq Km and if combined it with the area of sawai man singh sanctuary area, it is around 500 Sq km. Ranthambore national park was declared a wildlife sanctuary in 1957 and in 1974 it gained the protection of "Project Tiger". It got its status of a National Park in 1981
